U. S. TROOP SHIP
WAS TORPEDOED

RADIO SAYS LINER QUEEN
MARY ATTACKED NEAR
RIO DE JANEIRO

10,000 AMERICANS ON BOARD

Broadcast Declares Big Ship Left Rio For Unknown Destination
Only A Few Days Ago

NEW YORK, March 14—(UP)— The Rome radio was heard broadcasting today a report credited to "maritime circles" in Buenos Aires that the liner Queen Mary with 10, 000 North American troops aboard, had been torpedoed near Rio De Janeiro.

The report was contained in a dispatch of Stefani, the official Italian news agency. The dispatch, as broadcast by the Rome radio follows:
"In Argentine maritime circles it is affirmed that the British Transatlantic liner Queen Mary, which left Rio De Janeiro a few days ago with 20,000 North American soldiers aboard headed for an unknown direction, was torpedoed. The ship was heavily damaged and tried to reach the British base in the Falkland islands."

The Queen Mary is 81,000 tons, one of the three largest ships afloat.
The other two are the former French liner Normandie, now on her side and wrecked by fire in New York harbor, and the British liner, Queen Elizabeth. The Queen Mary was a queen of the North Atlantic trade before the war and since has been engaged in British war service.

It was noted that the authority for the Stefani dispatch was exceeding vague and that false reports of its nature frequently emanate from Axis radios and other propaganda sources. Their purpose is to draw details that will reveal vital information—in this case, where the Queen Mary is now and what she is doing.
In Washington, the navy and war departments said they had no information and refused to comment.

To Hold Hearings
On Wages, Strikes

CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS
MAKE PLANS FOR INTEN-SIVE INVESTIGATIONS

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(UP)— Congressional leaders laid plans today for thorough hearings on proposals for wage controls, limitations on overtime payments to workers, and control of strikes in war production industries.

Shortly after President Roosevelt revealed at his press conference that he is giving general consideration to the problem of controlling wartime wages and profits:

1. Chairman Frederick Van Nuys, D. Ind., of the Senate judiciary committee announced that a subcommittee soon is expected to explore the subject of wages.
2. Chairman Elmer Thomas, D., Okla., of a Senate military appropriations subcommittee indicated he would begin an inquiry next Tuesday into the cause of lagging production, including operation of the 40-hour week and "exorbitant high prices being paid for labor and the prevalence of strikes in defense industries." 3. Sen. Prentiss M. Brown, D., Mich., suggested that overtime work be compensated for in non-negotiable government bonds—a form of compulsory saving.
Van Nuys said a subcommittee of his group is planning to hold hearings on a bill by Sen. Clyde M. Reed, R. Kans., to ban the closed shop on government contracts for the duration and that he expected it also would go into the question of wage controls.

VIERECK SENTENCED

George Sylvester Viereck, 57-year-old poet, author and ace propagandist for Germany, was sentenced today to from two to six years in prison today for violating the foreign agents registration act.
Though he had registered with the State Department as a foreign agent, he was tried specifically for failing to report all his activities which allegedly included misuse of the congressional frank to disseminate propaganda.

Judge F. Dickinson Letts also fined him $500 and directed that he pay the costs of his three-week trial.

Deserters Kill
Federal Agent

ESCAPE IN CAFE BATTLE; SUR-RENDER LATER AS GAS
BOMBS EXPLODE

ABINGDON, Va., March 14.—Two young army deserters, waving an improvised white flag after a gun battle which resulted in the death of one FBI agent and the wounding of another, stumbled from a tear gas-filled house yesterday afternoon and surrendered.

The soldiers had been sought since early this morning when FBI Agent Hubert J. Treacy, Jr., 28 years old, was killed and Agent Charles L.
Tignor, 29, wounded as they sought to arrest the pair in an all-night Abingdon cafe.

The fugitives, listed by the FBI as deserters from Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., were Charles J. Lovett, 21, Philadelphia, and James Edward Testeman, 22, Clinchburg, Va.

They escaped through a cemetery after blazing away—service pistols in each hand—at the FBI agents and immediately became objects of an intensive search by more than 100 federal, state and county officers.

J. Edgar Hoover, FBI chief, took over personal direction of the hunt from his headquarters in Washington and the net closed so tightly and so swiftly that the soldiers got no farther than an abandoned house on the outskirts of this southwest Virginia town.

Police encircled the house and a number of shots were exchanged, with no one injured, until tear gas could be projected into the riddled structure.

Choking and stumbling through tear gas fumes, the men emerged from a doorway with upraised arms and gave themselves up. FBI agents bundled them into an automobile and took them to the jail at Bristol, Va.

WILLIS ADER IS FIRST IN ORATORICAL CONTEST

Willis Ader, a student in the Bainbridge high school and son of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Ader of Monroe township won first place in the American re Haute Friday night.

Other winners were William Burgoyne, Brownsburg, second; William Horton, Crawfordsville, third and Arthur Brown, Gertsmyer high school, fourth.

Mr. Ader's topic was "Democracy" and he has proved himself one of the outstanding speakers in central Indiana high schools. He will represent this district in the zone contest to be held at some point in northern Indiana on March 27, and his wide circle of Putnam county friends believe he has a splendid chance of winning the zone as well as the state contest.

CONDITION FAIR

The condition of James Hall of tendants stated that he had a very uncomfortable night, but his condition was fair this morning.

BOY AND GIRL SCOUTS DID SPLENDID WORK IN DEFENSE OF PEARL HARBOR

When the complete history of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor is finally written undoubtedly among the chapters describing heroic actions will be several describing the splendid work of the Boy and Girl Scouts of Hawaii. While detailed information is not available, nevertheless it is known that forty Scouts and Leaders rushed to the scene of bombardment in one part of the city to help rescue people, fight fire with the firemen, and do guard duty along the roads and streets. All over the city Scouts and Leaders served as guides and orderlies, helped at first aid stations and hospitals assisted evacuees, helped dig trenches and make air raid shelters, and even donated their blood to hospital-als. Following is a report on their service for the ten days including and following December 7: "We are not permitted to mention names of places nor details of action or anything of that kind. Suffice for the present in the knowledge that Boy Scout training caused a large number of Scouts and Scout Leaders to mobilize immediately for service where they were needed, some directly under fire, others within close danger area, and all throughout the whole community during the period of greatest stress and strain."

Many U. S. Troops
Reach Australia

THOUSANDS OF AMERICAN
DOUGHBOYS ARRIVE SAYS
COPYRIGHTED DISPATCH

CHICAGO, March 14 (UP)—The Chicago Sun reported in a copyrighted dispatch from Sidney, Australia, today that "thousands of United States soldiers" arrived in Australia three weeks ago in a convoy which survived Japanese attacks without the loss of a man.

The dispatch was sent by Sun correspondent Edward Angly, who said he accompanied the convoy.

"Where the soldiers are debarking and what they are doing is a military secret," the dispatch said. "But it is possible to reveal that the troop convoy in which I came to Australia three weeks ago was attacked on more than one occasion."

"Our protecting warships were quick to strike and I have a notion that some of the Japanese who left home looking for trouble found so much of it in our company that they will never get home to tell the tale."

"On the other hand, every man in our convoy reached his destination safe and sound."

No additional details on the attacks were given.
(Angly's dispatch was the first received by an American newspaper or press association reporting the arrival of a troop convoy at Australia. The London Daily Mail, however, carried a dispatch from its correspondent, Walter Farr, last Saturday, reporting he was at sea with a United Nations convoy in the south Pacific.

LONG RANGE BOMBERS USED

Anzacs Seek Jap Invasion Ships At Northern End Of The Solomon Islands

MELBOURNE, Australia, March 14—(UP)—Long range bombing planes swept out over Melanesia today, hunting a Japanese invasion fleet which aviators had reported off Buka Island, at the northern end of the Solomon group, 1,000 miles northeast of the Australian continent.

A Royal Australian Air Force communique said that Australian planes had inflicted heavy damage on Japanese grounded aircraft in an attack yesterday on the Japanese invasion base on Rabaul, in New Britain island to the west of Buka, whence enemy planes might take off to protect the invasion fleet from Allied attack.

Japanese planes, the communique said, made their 12th attack yesterday on Port Moresby, on the New Guinea coast opposite Australia, toward which some experts believe the invasion fleet might head.

(The British radio reported last night, in a broadcast recorded by the United Press in New York, that a total of 16 Japanese ships, including a cruiser and a destroyer, had been sunk in New Guinea waters. It was assumed that this total included ships destroyed in a big raid earlier this week on Japanese invasion ships off the New Guinea coast.)

With Australia increasingly more aware of the acute threat of Japanese attack on Australia, Prime Minister John Curtin announced that foreign minister Herbert Evatt, who is also attorney general, would leave soon for the United States.

At Washington, Evatt was expected to confer with United States leaders on joint plans for offense as well as defense plans for the southwest Pacific, seeking to use as a basis a new Australian-New Zealand strategic agreement which has been forwarded to President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

Awaiting further news of the Japanese invasion fleet seen off the Solomons, Australians saw in the fleet a distinct threat to Australian-United States communications.

Allied planes watched all waters adjacent to New Guinea in the belief that the Japanese might essay an attack on Port Moresby, on the south coast of New Guinea only 350 miles from the continent.

WAR FLASHES

communique of the India-Burma moving northward."

LEWES, Del., March 14.—(UP)— Fourth naval district officers announced last night the sinking of a small Norwegian freighter off the Maryland-Delaware coast, with the possible loss of six lives.
